On January 19th, 2018, ROBLOX announced that they would be releasing a feature called "ROBLOX Studio Preview". This allows users who have purchased a "Full Studio" to test it before buying it. They will also be able to provide feedback.[85]

Rated 5 out of 5 by Anonymous from So much fun I love this game so much! There is no fighting, just chatting with your friends online and there are no missions or quests to complete to play this game. It has no age limit either, so younger kids can join in.

Who would want to play a game like this? Nobody really I would think. It's just like Roblox in that you can buy stuff with fake money, but there is no value in either one of them. The real issue is that the developer(s) of both games are making a ton of money from people who don't care about winning or losing, they just want to have fun.

Roblox Help on Steam (Steam Community) - This is a helpful site where you can find help on Roblox games. There are patches and fixes for the Roblox games that have been developed by the community. If you're having trouble with a game, this is where you should start. You can also find links to all of the Roblox games that have been submitted to Steam and nothing has been updated or released in a while. The page is organized in alphabetical order, so there's a good chance it will be easy to find what you need.

ROBLOX announced they would be making videos, dubbed ROBLOX TV, in early 2017. They released three in total before shutting down all three channels to focus on "Builders Club". The first was a short-lived comedy show hosted by Janitorman and Aron. The second was a short-lived reality show hosted by JhonnyFive from the "Testing Grounds". The third was a sports talk show called "Game Time" in which users could discuss various topics pertaining to sports. In each of these shows, they would later add other people to the cast like Woody's Gamertag in Game Time.
